CIRCULAR SAWS,

For sale by H. W. CORBETT.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31, 1865.

THE PASSENGERS AND MAILS

For the Pacific go out to-morrow in the new and magnificent steamship Henry Chauncey, the pioneer of the Pacific Mail Company's line on the Atlantic. As the Company's vessels are well known to residents of the Pacific coast, it is needless to give any description of this splendid steamship. It is anticipated that the trip through to San Francisco, will be made in twenty days, and that that will be about the length of passage under the new regime. Captain Gray, formerly of the Star of the West and Baltic, will command the Chauncey. The Atlantic, Capt. Maury, will follow on the 11th, and the Baltic, Captain Hunner, on the 21st.

AN OPINION FROM GEN. LOGAN.

Much gratification is expressed at the defeat of Wade Hampton in South Carolina. The feeling which animates the loyal masses on the subject of the election of avowed rebels to Congress, and other positions of preferment was well expressed by General Logan a few nights ago when he said in the course of a speech, "In God's name, don't let them (the Southern States) send to Congress those Generals who have led their armies in the field, and butchered our Union soldiers." The idea struck the hearts of the assembled throng and was applauded to the echo.

THE ENGLISH CAPITALISTS

Who have been paying a visit to this country leave for home on the Scotia, to-morrow. They have been remarkably well received wherever they have traveled, and deservedly so, for a more decent crowd of Johnny Bulls never landed on these shores. A magnificent dinner was given last night by Sir Morton Peto to a select assemblage of Americans at Delmonico's. The caterer had carte blanche, and the affair was probably the nicest thing of the kind ever given in New York. The price I hear, was $50 per man, and there were 220 present. To-night, Cyrus W. Field is giving a parting dinner to the English guests, at which the most distinguished of our citizens are present. It is said that at the banquet given by Sir Morton Peto, Bennett of the Herald, was alone in his glory, hardly noticed by any one, while the luminous face of Horace Greeley was surrounded by a knot of eager listeners to his remarks.

THE HERALD

Is said to have lost 40,000 circulation since the close of the war, and an additional number in consequence of its own war with the theatrical managers. It seems to be losing caste very rapidly, and it is just possible that the blow struck at that journal by Maretzek, was the beginning of the end, and that some of these days the high and mighty Herald will share the fate of hundreds of less prosperous journals. The Herald job office closed, and the loss to the establishment by the withdrawal of the patronage of the theatres, is estimated at between $100,000 and $150,000 per annum.

THE WHOLE OF THE BENNETT STORY

has never been told. It appears that the main point in the quarrel between Bennett and Barnum is the fact, that when Bennett bought Barnum's lease for $200,000, he was unaware that it covered only the site of the "museum" building proper. Another lease, that of a building the upper portion of which was an addition to the museum, cost Bennett $87,000 more, making the total outlay, including $450,000 for the land, $737,000. Bennett thought he was overreached by Barnum, and wanted the $87,000 deducted from the amount already paid to the latter. Barnum couldn't see it in that light. I understand Bennett is likely to commence a suit against Barnum for the recovery of what he considers fraudulently acquired money. Proposals appear in the Herald for the construction of a fire-proof building on the site of the late museum.

THE NATIONAL BANKS

are going into all sorts of business. They are moving in the matter of a mammoth express company, a sort of big opposition to the Adams Express, by which they expect to save a large amount of money in making their exchanges, the collection of drafts, etc. It is also said they propose to establish a daily newspaper in this city, devoted to their interests, which they think will equal to influence the London Times, and far exceed the (in their opinion) miserably conducted dailies of New York. According to their idea, the national banks ought to have an organ, which would always present their affairs in a proper light before the public. They consider themselves badly treated by New York journalists, or rather that they are not represented by the latter in as extensive a light as they wish to be, and intend if the thing be possible, to ruin all the great newspaper establishments of this city. Don't they wish they may succeed?

A BOOK FROM GEN. LEE.

The reputation of the ex-military chief of the rebellion makes everything relating to him of interest to the public. General Lee has made a contract with C. B. Richardson, a publisher of this city, to publish his history of the war. A specification in the contract is that not a word of the copy is to be altered. Gen. Lee's work is looked for eagerly, as many people hope to find in it a lucid explanation of a number of points on which there has been a great deal of dispute for the past two or three years. The merits of several prominent military men will, it is supposed, either suffer, or be made to appear more prominent through the disclosures of Gen. Lee, and more particularly those of Generals McClellan and Meade, each of whom permitted, or was unable to prevent, the escape of the rebel army after its disastrous defeats at Antietam and Gettysburg. Lee will undoubtedly reach an immense number of readers through his forthcoming book.

COTTON IN ILLINOIS.

Major General Logan is now in this city to sell sixty bales of cotton raised on his farm near Carbondale, Illinois. About twenty-six thousand bales were raised this year in Southern Illinois. The quality is that of low grade of middling upland. Last year the crop failed from early frost. This year the frost was very late, which was highly favorable to the growth of the cotton, and the consequence is quite a large crop. Though cotton is no longer king, even in the noddles of our ex-Confederate brethren, it is still a very valuable article, and its cultivation in Illinois bids fair to add largely to the productive wealth of that State.

A. H. Stephens and John H. Regan have returned to the South in an intensely "Union" frame of mind. When they were in New York an acquaintance of mine had an interview with Regan. The latter repeated the sentiments of his recent letter to the people of Texas, upon whom he said he should urge the best measures of peace and prosperity. He earnestly advocates negro suffrage under proper limitations, esteeming a war of races inevitable unless the negroes are allowed to defend some of their rights. He favors immigration from the North and foreign countries to the Southern States, which he thinks will see a new era of prosperity under the overthrow of slavery and the adoption of progressive sentiments. He is apparently honest and earnest in his expression of opinion, and while an intense rebel when there was a seeming chance for the Confederacy, is inclined to submit gracefully to the logic of events. "The South, he says, appealed to the sword as the only means of negotiation. The verdict was against her and she should abide by it.

NEW GOLD CERTIFICATES.

Assistant Treasurer Van Dyck has commenced the sale of the new gold Certificates issued by the Government. They consist of $20's, $50's, $100's, $500's, $1,000's, and $5,000's. The paper is thick and strong, and is tinted and shaded, and the engraving is finely executed. To make them payable without the formality of a transfer by signature, the $5,000 and $1,000 notes are drawn to the order of the chief clerk of the Sub-Treasurer, and endorsed by him, though the money will be credited on the books to the depositor, who may if he choose write his own name over the endorsement of M. Birdsall, when the note will be payable to his own order without this extra endorsement however the certificate may pass from hand to hand and will be received at the Custom House at any port, or be redeemable at the Sub-Treasury here on presentation. All the smaller notes are to be made payable to bearer.

TERROR AND DISMAY,

Has seized our politicians here, owing to the recent orders from Washington forbidding the assessing of party expenses upon the workmen at the navy yard and the employees at the custom house. There are hundreds of fellows here who have for years lived upon this sort of plunder, who profess to have influence enough to carry any number of votes, who will either have to draw upon their own purses or go to work this campaign! No sensible person seems to have any other opinion of the aforesaid orders than that they should have been issued years ago.

AN OUTRAGE,

On decency and bravery is being perpetrated in this home of humbugs and swindles. Some time ago the Sanitary Commission established a soldier's messenger corps, thus giving employment to one-armed soldiers, who have been patronized quite liberally by the public. They generally wear their uniform blouses, pants and red cap. Within a few days some fellow has got together a heterogeneous crowd of fellows, put red caps on them, and thus is trying to "run out" the poor soldiers who are trying to earn a living. None of the new crowd have ever been in the army even as bummers, and the cheat, having been exposed by the press, is meeting universal execration by the public.

HOW THE PRESIDENT SHUT UP A POLITICIAN.

A good story is told of the President and one of our famous New York politicians, who called on him. After a long talk on political matters, the New Yorker invited the President to visit the commercial metropolis, and as an extra inducement mentioned the superior flavor and succulency of New York Oysters. The reply is said to have been, "There's one good thing about oysters, at any rate—they know when to shut up." The politician saw he had bored the President long enough, and withdrew.

THURLOW WEED

Makes a rich statement in the Times. Those familiar with the doings of lobby members will appreciate it. He says: "As a journalist at Albany he stood sentinel over the treasury for thirty-five years, never taking himself nor allowing others to take, if it was in his power to prevent it, an unlawful dollar," and adds that he is "totally and innocently unconscious of any such institution as a third house"—i. e. lobby. I am very much afraid everybody will believe Mr. Weed's assertions.

THE CORRESPONDENCE

Between Minister Adams and Earl Russell is regarded here as highly gratifying to our pride as a nation. The liberal English papers, and indeed most of the prominent weeklies of London, coincide with us in the opinion that Mr. Adams had a great deal the best of the controversy. The correspondence has been read by everybody, and will well pay perusal, more particularly in view of the fact that Earl Russell is probably at this moment the chief of the British cabinet. The whole subject of reparation for damages by the piratical craft which left English shores is likely, however, to be amicably settled by arbitration, and it is said Hon. Caleb Cushing is about to start for England to initiate measures to that effect.

WENDELL PHILLIPS

ever more ultra than anybody else in his ideas, has just delivered a speech in which he arrays himself against the Government, and asserts that the South has come out of the conflict victorious. He denounces the President, Seward, Beecher, Greeley, Bryant and others, and was especially severe upon the President for having reduced the military force of the country to 75,000 men. Fully 250,000 troops he argued, should have been retained in the service, in order to insure peace and quiet at the South. If Mr. Johnson is entitled to the gratitude of his countrymen for one thing more than another it is for the rapid manner in which he has mustered the troops out of service, and thus reduced the enormous expenses of the country.

THERE IS STRONG TALK

of creating the grade of General in our army, and raising Lieut.-General Grant to that position. The matter will be brought before Congress early in the coming session. If accomplished, General Sherman is likely to receive the grade of Lieut.-General, and Generals Meade, Thomas and Sheridan to become brevet Lieut.-Generals.

A TAX ASSESSORS' CONVENTION

has been in session at Albany recently, but the members appear incapable of rising above the level of red tape routine and have presented but little to challenge the admiration of tax-payers. They have rejected a resolution endorsing a tax on sales, the least burdensome method of taxation ever devised. They recommend the placing of distilleries under the charge of revenue officers, but it is hard to see how this could do anything more than give a nice chance to the officers named to pocket some fat perquisites. Altogether, the convention has done nothing to solve the question of what to tax and how to tax it. A few of our practical business men would do much better, and it is to be hoped Congress will invite them to try their hand in the matter.

HENRY S. FOOTE,

Is, I hear, on the authority of Gen. Fisk, who is now in this city, the only rebel he has seen who expresses contrition for what he has done. Every one else claims his property as a right, and in the most open and defiant manner proclaim their hostility to the acts of the Government. There is a great deal of rebellious feeling yet in the South which requires to be crushed out with an "iron" hand. The President's course in refusing for the present to recognize the newly elected Governors in the late rebel States, is the theme of approval by all except the extreme Copperheads.

COMMODORE GARRISON

Has, in connection with D. B. Allen, late Agent of the California line of steamers, established lines of steamships to Savannah and New Orleans. The San Salvador and San Jacinto, are about to commence their trips to the former port, and the Matanzas sails to-morrow for New Orleans, as the pioneer vessels of their line to that city. The latter takes freight for St. Louis, through an arrangement with a Mississippi Steamboat Company.

THE PROTECTIVE WAR CLAIM ASSOCIATION

Of this city, have done an excellent work. They have collected for the widows and orphans of our heroic soldiers and sailors since March 15th, 1863, the sum of $628,000 without charge. There still remain in their hands uncollected claims to the amount of $2,368,500, which will be eventually obtained from the Government, and handed over to the parties to whom it belongs.

DEPARTURE OF TROOPS FOR OREGON.

The last half of the first battalion 14th U. S. Infantry, which sailed on the 1st, on the Henry Chauncey, will be followed to-morrow, by the first half of the third battalion. The residue of the regiment sail on the Baltic on the 21st. These troops are to be quartered in Oregon.

SOUTHERN POSTMASTERS EXONERATED.—Government has just received from Charleston, S. C., a quantity of letters written in the spring of 1861, by the more honest Postmasters of places south of Charleston, containing money and postage stamps, but all seized at that city by the Confederates. The stamps being useless to them, were allowed to accumulate there. Government has also received $8,400 for postage due from Charleston before the war.

THE "FROZEN TRUTH."—A story is told of a soldier who, about one hundred and fifty years ago was frozen in Siberia. The last expression he made was, "it is ex—." He then froze as stiff as marble. In the summer of 1860 some French physicians found him, after having laid frozen one hundred and fifty years. They gradually thawed him, and upon animation being restored, he concluded his sentence with "ceedingly cold."

FREDERICK W. SEWARD AT HIS DESK.—Frederick W. Seward has sufficiently recovered to resume the duties of Assistant Secretary of State. He has not been in attendance at the State Department as yet, but transacts official business at his residence. On the 2d November, for the first time in six months, he attached his signature to a number of dispatches.

CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE ON GEN. BANKS.—Chief Justice Chase has recently written a letter, in which occur the following sentences:

I shall ever regret my opposition to General Banks. I am now convinced that he was the only man who could make Louisiana a Free State.

The letter from which the above is taken was written after Chase had visited Louisiana.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE

MONDAY MORNING, DEC. 11, 1865

The Commercial Prospects of Portland

Portland has natural and acquired advantages which ought to make her a city of importance. If these advantages are to be properly understood and rightly improved by those who are interested in her welfare Portland will soon enter upon a career of commercial prosperity not equalled by anything ever imagined for her or for Oregon. An examination of the position she holds to day in relation to the balance of the State and to the Territories east and north, will show why her prospects are better now than they have ever been. This inquiry will also show what is necessary to be done in order that the expectations which many have formed of a prosperous future for Portland may be realized.

Oregon of to-day, is not the Oregon of ten or even of five years ago. Then the business of the State was limited almost entirely to transactions among our own people. The great market which has the Columbia river for its avenue did not then exist. The interior trade of Portland was confined to this valley. The comparatively small amount of business then done in the State naturally found its centre here. The early prosperity of Portland rested upon this limited trade. But since the opening of the northern and eastern market throughout the entire valley of the great Columbia and beyond, our trade has taken another direction, and has been vastly increased. Our field of business has not, however, been enlarged to the great extent of which it is easily capable. Some of the reasons why and how it has not, we propose to show.

Though great changes have taken place in the demands of trade, our mode of doing business is yet almost unchanged. Our merchants had become accustomed to the old methods which were necessarily in use in the days when there was but a limited market to supply, and this course of business has not yet been succeeded by the better methods which, as it seems to us, the necessities of the times demand. We talk of making Portland the entrepot from which the Territories of Idaho and Montana, and even of Utah, may be supplied with goods. This is very well, but if we obtain the whole, or a good share of the trade of these regions, we shall have to proceed upon a plan different from that which was in vogue among us while the Willamette valley was the only field we had to supply. In short, our facilities for supplying the whole surrounding country with goods must be enlarged so as to correspond with the present and prospective demands of trade. A few years ago, it sufficed for each merchant to keep a small, but well assorted stock. Indeed this was the only plan on which business could then be successfully conducted. Dealers prospered greatly by adhering to it. But a business conducted on this system fails to answer the demands of a large and growing trade. If Portland aspires to the position of a commercial city, and hopes to furnish the whole upper country with goods, her merchants must have stocks large enough to supply the wants of all customers. Traders who come from the upper Columbia, desiring large quantities of goods, must no longer be under the necessity of going to San Francisco to get them, as is now often the case. If they are expected to stop here to purchase, they must be able to find whatever they want, in such quantities as they desire, and at satisfactory rates.

An Idaho or Montana merchant wants goods the amount of fifty thousand dollars. He comes here perhaps, and not readily finding all the varieties of merchandise he desires, in such quantities as to suit, goes on to San Francisco. On their arrival here, his goods are transferred from one vessel to another; Portland losing all the benefits and profits of the trade. Now, Portland might do, and ought to do, all this business. A merchant from any part of the country should be able to find here such commodities as he wants, and in such quantities as will not render it necessary for him to go from one establishment to another, gathering together by little and little enough of a single kind of merchandise to supply his needs. Had we a number of wholesale houses, each dealing in one kind of goods, purchasers could be readily and cheaply supplied. For doing business on this plan, no larger capital will be needed than is already invested in assorted stocks. Customers from the interior would not then be compelled to pass us by and go to San Francisco to obtain the goods necessary to supply their trade.

There are many articles which Portland ought to be ready to furnish in any desired quantities, but which very often cannot be obtained here. This is the consequence of doing business in the manner which we have spoken of as largely prevailing in this place. Some descriptions of goods in assorted stocks will occasionally become scarce. This has often been the case in Portland and if we mistake not, it is so now. For the sake of illustration we may mention a few articles in general use, of which our market is or has lately been, entirely bare. We are credibly informed that of so common a commodity as cotton or linen duck, there are not fifty yards in the city. Of eight penny nails, an article without which a house cannot be built, we are told, there are not twenty five kegs in the market. Before the arrival of the steamer a day or two ago, the stock of coal oil was entirely exhausted. Anthracite coal is indispensable to foundrymen, and though there are four foundries in the city, there is not among them all one fourth of a ton of this species of coal. Those who are in want of castings either have to wait until coal arrives or send to San Francisco to get their work done. Cumberland coal is used by every blacksmith, and in every machine shop, but there are not three tons of it in town. We might enumerate other articles which are in daily use and constantly called for but which are not to be obtained here in any considerable quantities.

So long as Portland continues to do business on these principles, she will not grow to be the great commercial point which many expect her to become. True, she is prosperous now, and we doubt not, will soon be greatly more prosperous than she has ever been; but in order to insure the achievement of all that is hoped for, intelligent energy and active enterprise are necessary in opening new channels of trade and in supplying those who may desire to purchase in this market, with every species of goods they need.

We shall continue this subject at another time.

We had a call on Saturday from Col. Chapman of Coles county, Illinois. This gentleman comes from the East by steamer, and is on his way to Hell Gate as Agent for the Government to have charge over the Blackfoot Indians. Col. Chapman was in the army from the fall of 1861 to the close of the war. With his regiment, the Fifty Fourth Illinois, he served under Grant until the capture of Vicksburg, after which being given the command of a brigade he served in Arkansas and the southwest under General Steele. Of this last officer, who is expected here by next steamer to take command of the Department of the Columbia, Colonel Chapman speaks in terms of the highest praise.

In order to convince its readers that it did not say that we "will have a good time preaching slavery and denying liberty before the Union men of Oregon," the Statesman has no alternative but to deny its own words, which it does in its issue of this week. Of course there is an end of all argument when a disputant sees fit to declare that he never uttered words which the record proves him to have spoken.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO DECEMBER 8.

Additional Eastern News

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—Thanksgiving Day was very generally observed in the State. All business was suspended. The Freewill Baptist Church in Chicago was dedicated yesterday morning and burned in the afternoon; loss about $15,000. The cause was a defective flue.

Gen. Grant arrived at Augusta, Ga., on the 6th. He will reach Atlanta on the 7th and return to Washington direct.

It is rumored that the President will withdraw the Provisional Governors as soon as the several States shall ratify the amendment to the Constitution and [illegible] admit and give freedmen the right to testify in the courts and repeal the [illegible]; also that military forces will be withdrawn and the Freedmen's Bureau discontinued as soon as a disposition is shown to give freedmen a fair trial. He will then consider the work of reconstruction complete and recognize them as States upon an equal footing with the Northern States and the war would be at an end.

One hundred and fifty pardons all of the $20,000 clause, were duly signed and issued by the President yesterday. A large number now excluded in the Amnesty Proclamation will be pardoned by another proclamation. Among the captured rebel property in North Carolina was a lot of paper money bearing the imprint of the National Bank Note Company. The engraving was well executed and the bills were printed in Green Ink, supposed to have been done by Northern artists. The company has been called on for an explanation by the Secretary of the Treasury. The following dispatch is published:

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—To B. F. Perry, Provisional Governor of South Carolina: I do not think it necessary for members elected from South Carolina to be present at the organization of Congress. On the contrary, it will be better policy to present their certificates of election after the two houses have organized, which will then be the simple question under the Constitution of members taking their seats. Each house must judge for itself as to election returns, and qualifications of its own members. As to what the two houses will do in reference to the oath required to be taken before the members can take their seats it is unknown to me, and I do not like to predict, but upon the whole, I am of opinion that it would be better for the question to come up and be disposed of after the two houses have been organized. I hope your Legislature will adopt a code in reference to free persons of color, that will be acceptable to the country, and at the same time doing justice to the white and colored populations.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

NEW YORK, December 7.—General Hooker is dangerously ill of erysipelas.

The Liverpool Post says several steamers formerly engaged in running the American blockade, are lying in Liverpool harbor making ready to visit Chilean ports. There is now a large amount of English merchandise going to Chile. The captains of these ships are ignorant of the state of affairs, and are in danger of suffering severely unless the English naval authorities in the Pacific act promptly.

A letter from Fortress Monroe says the larger portion of the rebel ram Merrimack was successfully raised on the 5th, and towed to the Portsmouth navy yard.

CAIRO, December 7.—A correspondent of the Memphis Bulletin says 10,000 bales of cotton have been stolen along the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, 4,000 to 5,000 at Columbus, Miss., 5,000 to 10,000 at Macon, and smaller amounts from other points. Government officers are investigating the matter. It is estimated there are 12,000 bales of Government cotton at Columbus, Macon and Brooksville.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.

SENATE.—Watts presented a bill to regulate the elective franchise in the District of Columbia. The bill provides that from and after its passage every male citizen twenty one years of age, who is a citizen of the United States, and resident in the District for six months, and never been convicted of an infamous crime, shall have the right of suffrage in said District. Section second imposes a penalty for interruption or interference with rights granted by the above bill. Ordered to be printed.

Sumner introduced a bill to preserve the right of trial by jury which provides that grand juries shall consist one half of persons of African descent in sections where one sixth of the population are Africans and the same proportion in petit juries where the matter relates to any injuries inflicted by persons of African descent. Upon persons not of such descent or vice versa, prejudice against such African race is made the ground of challenge and exclusion from such juries, ordered printed. Sumner introduced a bill prescribing an oath to maintain a Republican form of government, in States in rebellion, as follows:

"I do hereby swear that I will, at all times hereafter, use my best endeavors to maintain a Republican form of government in the State of which I am an inhabitant and the Union of the United States, that I will at all times recognize indissoluble loyalty to the Republic, I will always discountenance any endeavors to break away or secede from the Union, will give my influence and vote at all times to sustain the national credit, will always discountenance and resist any attempt, directly or indirectly, to postpone either in any part the debt contracted by the United States in the rebellion, or obligations assumed to Union soldiers, will always discountenance and resist any laws making any distinction of race or color, and always strive to maintain a State Government completely loyal to the Union where all men shall enjoy equal protection and rights."

Such oath shall be preserved; if falsely taken such person shall be guilty of perjury, and in addition to the present penalty for that crime, he shall forfeit his right to hold office. Ordered printed.

Sumner offered a bill to enforce the constitutional amendment by punishing any attempt to control the services of any persons contrary to this provision by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars or imprisonment not exceeding ten years, or both, at the discretion of the court. It shall be no defense that claim is sanctioned by State law. It annuls the State law in conflict with it. Also regarding cases going out of the United States Court. Ordered printed.

Sumner introduced a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution, so as to make voters, instead of population, the basis of representation in Congress.

Foote moved the adoption of the order that the Senate meet every day at twelve o'clock. Carried.

At half past twelve took recess until one, when it reassembled, directed the Secretary to inform the House of its organization, and the adjournment.

Mexican News.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—The Herald's El Paso correspondent of November 23d says French General Brincourt left Chihuahua in the direction of Durango on the 29th ultimo. This movement is the first confirmation of the recent reports from the city of Mexico to the effect that Marshal Bazaine was about to concentrate all of his forces in the interior of the State. It is further corroborated as a fact, that the French have abandoned the State of Sinaloa. They now retain only about four hundred invaders at Mazatlan. Those also are preparing apparently to leave. Some leading traitors have already gone to Tampico. Juarez will depart for Chihuahua on the 11th or 12th of November. Our officers at Franklin congratulate the members of the Liberal Government upon the present favorable aspect of affairs of their country and gave a renewal of their evidence of their sympathy for the Republican Government.

On the 10th ultimo, Senor Marcena, temporary Governor of Chihuahua, dispatched a special messenger to El Paso apprising the Government of Juarez that the return of the supreme authorities to Chihuahua was anxiously expected by the inhabitants of the former capital. Marcena also communicated intelligence that he had received twenty nine French deserters, who stated that many of their comrades would be glad to leave their colors if they could evade the vigilance of their officers.

When the French left Chihuahua they were accompanied by a number of prominent traitors. It will probably take the French at least one month to reach Durango. During their short march to Mapula they lost twenty one men, already. Terrazas, Gutierrez and Carbajal are now in the State of Durango. If their forces succeed in cutting [illegible] with Villagran and Mesa, the invaders will run the risk of a thrashing.

It is stated as certain that when last heard from, Gen. Ruiz was in the vicinity of Mazatlan, with a considerable force.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 8.—The trotting match between May Queen, Geo. M. Patchen, Jr., and Gentleman George, mile heats, best three in five for $1,200 took place at the Ocean House track yesterday, won by May Queen in three straight heats; time 2.34, 2.31, 2.37. The celebrated thoroughbred stallion [illegible], who has twice been beaten by Norfolk, is advertised to be sold at public auction at the Fashion stables, San Francisco on Saturday, December 16.

On Wednesday evening one of the cooks at the Occidental Hotel accidentally fell out of the dining room window to the pavement below, and received severe contusion of the brain, with paralysis of the right side and lies in a critical condition. The California Steam Navigation Company will dispatch the first steamer of their line to Honolulu on the 6th of January. This will be an important event in the steam navigation of the Pacific.

There were sales of $20,900 legal tenders at 68@68½, the advance being based on a decline of gold in New York to 146@147 on the 6th instant. Checks on drafts on Atlantic cities are 1½ per cent premium. The mining stock market is dull and with little exception lower. Yellow Jacket declined to $[illegible], seller 10 days. Belcher 385. Oats—range from 1 45 to 1 65 per 100 lbs for ordinary to prime.

OWYHEE NEWS.—We condense from the Avalanche of the 25th of November as follows:

On the 2[illegible]d of November at Ruby City, P. Gilping stabbed Charles Wilson, wounding him very seriously. Gilping had not yet been examined.

In one week the Morning Star mill had cleaned up enough to make twenty bricks of the average value of $1,700. This mill has been doing as well as this for months past.

Mr. Richardson gave his opinion, after a thorough examination that Owyhee is the richest silver district in the United States.

Gov. Lyon of [illegible], had visited Owyhee, and made a characteristic speech. The Governor has a diamond which he received from a man named Wilson, who found it about twenty miles in a southerly direction from the Snake river ferry, between Boise and Owyhee. This man met Governor Lyon on the ocean steamer, in May last and entrusted him with two diamonds, one of which he sold in New York for $1,000, the other was a present to him. The man Wilson was was coming back with Dr. A. G. Henry, who had "diamond on the brain," and both were lost on board the Brother Jonathan. The exact locality, may not be found again for ages.

The tin lode is located on Jordan creek, above Silver City. Vass & Co., claim 3,800 feet of it. It is called the Cornwall lode. One of the owners has gone east to procure the appliances for testing the reality of the discovery, and bringing it before the public.

A wire suspension bridge is being built across the American river in California.

The vote in the House for Speaker was: Colfax, 135. Brooks, 35.

Notice to all Persons having Demands on the Government.

PENSIONS, BOUNTY, PRIZE-MONEY, PATENTS, Pay for Vouchers, Scrip, Back Pay, Lost Horse and Spoliation Claims obtained by the undersigned, who will attend to all other business before the Departments at Washington City.

Soldiers becoming disabled or diseased while in the service are entitled to a Pension. Those who served in any war previous to the 30th of March, 1855, are entitled to Bounty Land. Those who served in the Navy during the late war, and were legally attached to a vessel or squadron on duty, although not participating in the taking of prizes, are entitled to Prize Money. In many Indian Treaties provision is made for payment of Spoliation Claims out of Annuities. To collect the large number of such claims now owned in this country,—for the settlement of which no similar provision has been made by treaty—demand should be made at once therefor at the proper Department and, if found just, recommendation will be made to Congress to pass an act retaining the amount thereof out of the Annuities.

Letter from Salem

SALEM, OREGON, December 9th 1865.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Yesterday forenoon the House took up the Senate's Resolution in favor of the Constitutional Amendment. This being known as the question of the Session, much interest was felt in the subject by the [illegible] as well as the members and [illegible] whilst every member was in his seat, the gallery and every inch of the [illegible] hall was crowded with [illegible] to the [illegible] and witness the [illegible] of the most important Resolution ever before the Legislative Assembly of our young State.

[illegible] the motion of [illegible] Boulton, [illegible] inaugurated the debate in a speech of great force. The honorable gentleman [illegible] high stand [illegible] against slavery, and [illegible] the rebellion and as [illegible] was now prostrate it was urged that the cause should be removed especially as it could be done in a constitutional way. This effort was like a [illegible] to Judge Thornton's head, his heart [illegible] his patriotism.

The House then adjourned over to seven o'clock for a night session. The Hall again crowded to its utmost capacity. The opposition—Democrats, they called themselves [illegible]. The gentlemen from Jackson, Josephine and Umatilla respectively gave their reasons for opposing the Amendment, Mr. Fay of Jackson being the principal speaker in the opposition. His reasons were: 1st. That the people of Oregon had not been consulted. 2d. That Congress had not passed the resolution by the requisite two thirds majority; the States lately in rebellion not being represented in Congress at the time. 3d. That it was not an amendment but a modification of the Constitution that was proposed—a modification of [illegible] of the organic law of the nation as abridging the sovereignty of the States and change the whole genius of the Government. And lastly, That as slavery was not the cause of the late rebellion it was the exercise of an unwarranted power to strike a blow at the institution. The whole spirit of this speech was in the true Vallandigham style. In sympathy with the rebels in arms. By throwing all the sufferings of the land at the doors of Northern disorganizers—well worded, elegantly and eloquently delivered, but a perfect wisp of fogs and darkness, neither honorable to the young Democrat's head, heart, or patriotism.

The speeches of the other two gentlemen in the opposition had neither grace, diction, logic, sense, or loyalty in a stone's throw of them, though they were applauded considerably by Democrats in the gallery. Men of sense blushed to see that any constituency in Oregon would send up such men to embarrass the machinery of legislation.

By common consent of the House the honor of ventilating these "Democrats" and laying open the sophistry of the gentleman from Jackson was assigned to Mr. Bowlby of Washington, and most effectively did he do it. This gentleman is thoroughly posted on all topics now at issue before the nation as well as the genius of our Government and the embarrassments that surrounded the Constitutional Convention that framed the organic law of the nation. Added to this Mr. Bowlby is, and always has been, a high toned anti-slavery man, of a warm heart, active sympathies, a fluent speaker and a good debater. It is unnecessary to say that his speech was a noble effort—worthy of the best statesman of the age and was received with unbounded applause. The most of the Union members spoke during the session, in which but one sentiment prevailed—a desire to remove forever from the American people, the source of all our troubles.

At one o'clock at night, the "previous question" was called and the vote taken by ayes and noes, which resulted, as read by Mr. Speaker in 32 for the Amendment and three against it. Three Representatives in the Legislative Assembly of the free young State of Oregon, representing a constituency who claim to be intelligent and loyal, clung to the dead institution of slavery in their own dying hours.— "Tell it not in Gath; publish it not in the streets of Askelon, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised rejoice!" The Democratic party of Oregon, expired last night in the hall of the House, at exactly 30 minutes past 1 o'clock, with "negro on the brain." This morning while I write, it lies unburried in the streets, as "cold as a wagon tire!" Friends will be here in a day or two, under a flag of truce from Jeff. Davis to beg the corpse and bury it by the side of Booth and Wirts, reserving a space for the body of Jeff himself when the gallows shall have been honored with his neck. Good-bye "Democratic party." Your youth and manhood were honorable but your old age covered with the leprosy of treason! Sleep now "the sleep that knows no waking."

This great question settled, the Legislative Assembly begin this morning to work on minor questions with earnesty. The members are introducing matter sufficiently to keep them together all winter, if the session was not limited. As long as they can remain in session, however, seems to be the public sentiment, they will.

LOCAL NEWS

The funeral of Mrs. Judge Boise took place yesterday. From the family residence near Dallas, in Polk county, the body was brought here for interment. The religious ceremonies were performed in the Congregational Church of which deceased was a member. Rev Mr Dickinson officiating, assisted by Rev. Messrs. Leslie and Boyakin. A large concourse of citizens assembled in and around the church, to pay the last tribute of respect to the memory of the deceased, as well as to condole with the deeply afflicted husband and family. Both branches of the Legislature adjourned so as to give the members the privilege of commingling their tears of sorrow with the bereaved. Gov. Gibbs, Secretary May, and public functionaries generally were there. Mrs. Boise was widely known and universally beloved—one the best women in Oregon has been cut down in the bloom of womanhood causing thousands to mourn!

Not a breeze of news to fill the wet sails except what we get through the OREGONIAN. Did you know, by the way, that the OREGONIAN has the confidence of all the true Union men of Salem?

As ever, in behalf of the family,

ONE OF THE SMITHS.

Senator Williams and the Daily Mail

The following letter from Senator Williams to J. J. Hoffman, Esq., has been handed us for publication. It will be seen that the Senator fully exonerates himself from blame for the late stoppage of the daily mail:

WASHINGTON, October 16th, 1865.

DEAR SIR: I have just received your letter of date Sept. 14th, in which you mention that some persons are disposed to think that the failure of the Oregon daily mail is due to my inattention to the matter. I am sure no one will entertain that opinion after becoming acquainted with the facts. Last Spring when I ascertained that the California Stage Company had bid $300,000 and that the Post-office Department was not willing to pay that sum, I made an effort indirectly to have the Company reduce their bid, but this they absolutely refused to do. I then tried to persuade the Department to accept the $300,000 offer but without success. While things were in this shape, and I was seeking for some one to bid less, Mr. Reeside made a bid of $225,000, which was accepted. Mr. Reeside is an old contractor and is regarded here as responsible, and his failure to perform surprises every one who knows him. I remained here from my arrival in February until the 1st of July attending to this and other business, a large amount of which poured in upon me from Oregon, Washington and Idaho. I then left on a visit to New York and Iowa, intending to return by the 1st of Sept., but was detained by the sickness of my father until the 1st of the present month. When I left I supposed that our mail matters were all settled by the letting of the contract to Reeside. Returning here I learned that Reeside had failed, and forthwith called on the Postmaster General to ascertain what could be done. I found that he had dispatched a special agent to the Pacific coast, and that he was more determined than ever not to accede to the terms of the California Stage Company. He said it was simply a fight between a monopoly and the Department, and that the Department would never yield. He urged among other things that the entire income of the route was only $27,000 and that four or five years ago the California Stage Company fixed their own compensation at $90,000 and now when there was more travel and better roads and greenbacks were from 70 to 75 cents they pretended without truth that they could not perform the same service, without loss for $225,000. I met these arguments as well as I could under an oppressive sense that there was more truth than poetry in what he said. I made frequent visits to the Department and at one time while conversing about the matter I remarked to the Second Assistant Postmaster General that blame would be attached to me for what had taken place, to which he responded that the Department was quite ready to certify that I had been importunate enough upon the subject. As you have already learned Wells Fargo & Co., with characteristic enterprise, have made provisions for a daily mail in Oregon for $225,000. I sincerely regret the interruption of mail facilities to which the people have been subjected but which I could not avoid and hope and believe that when the service is resumed under the present contract nothing of the kind will again occur. Yours truly,

GEO. H. WILLIAMS.

J. J. HOFFMAN, Esq., Portland, Oregon.

The Oregon Statesman is very anxious to have Walla Walla annexed to Oregon. Of course as its "conservative" party would be considerably strengthened by the arrangement.

REMARKABLE DISCOVERY OF ORGANIC REMAINS IN MONTANA. — We take the subjoined from the Montana Post of Nov. 11th:

On Meagher's Bar, opposite Nevada, have been discovered fossils that undoubtedly prove that this part of the world was, at one time, inhabited by a race of human beings who stood from fifteen to twelve feet high, and by animals and quadrupeds at least twice as large as the [illegible] elephant. They were found about eighteen feet in what might be termed a [illegible] [illegible] in what the original [illegible] of the country indicates was once the bed of a river.

As an evidence of the former, we have laid before us the jaw bone anatomically termed the inferior maxillary of a biped which is almost double the size of an ordinary human jaw. In front [illegible] of the [illegible] the upper projection where the junction is made with the corresponding parts above, this fossil measures fully six inches. It is in a perfect state of preservation—so perfect that the [illegible] of ordinary size one would have supposed that its wearer had [illegible] from this vale of tears over fifteen or twenty years ago. The enamel of the teeth still remains bright and untouched by the action of fire, water or air. Not a tooth is lost. They comprise six grinders or molars (the usual number) and ten others, being sixteen in all. They have been much worn by the labor of mastication, which fact proves that this American Goliah [illegible] used them until they had prepared for his stomach [illegible] many years, perhaps until the other [illegible] of his physical organization had weakened [illegible] ago, when the utility of the teeth ceased, though decay had not yet marked them by a single perforation. The fact is, also, a good conjectural argument that this being belonged to a race similar in their habits to the existing tribes [illegible] who even in their [illegible] of the teeth. The jaw bone is the only portion of the remains we have seen, but [illegible] and other bones were found near the spot, which undoubtedly belonged to the same individual, as they are all of the proportionate size. It has been estimated by members of the medical fraternity here that the height of this biped could not have been less than ten and a half and might have reached twelve feet!

The annexed items are also from the Montana Post of the same date:

The first hydraulic and amalgamating machinery brought into the country, arrived from St. Joseph this week for the Nelson Hydraulic Mining Company. Four engines—ten horse power each with a capacity of throwing water eighty feet high, and by combining the engines a height of over three hundred feet—constitute the more important machinery of the Company. Fifteen hundred feet of wrought iron piping, with India rubber hose extension, and duplicates of every part of the machinery are being unpacked, and be ready to be used. Mr. Murphy, one of the Company and representative of the Eastern stock holders, informs us that in two weeks he will have two of the engines up and in working order. Our space prohibits further details. In our next we shall refer to this important branch of mining again.

We have received a letter from Fort Owen, Bitter Root Valley, which speaks very flatteringly of affairs thereabout. The new grist-mill at that place owned by Major Owen, is in fine running order. Its construction was a necessity long felt and the Major deserves great credit for the public spirit manifested in the matter. May the fruits of his enterprise be an ample fortune.

EARL RUSSELL'S ULTIMATUM. — It can no longer be denied that matters still look equally for the maintenance of peaceful relations with England. Arbitration, as proposed by Mr. Adams, may settle the question in the amicable manner most to be desired, but Earl Russell's attitude is certainly anything but friendly. In a manner that might be designated as at once haughty and Palmerstonian, he has thus written to our Minister:

Her Majesty's Government are the guardians of their own honor. They cannot admit that they may have acted with bad faith in maintaining the neutrality they professed. The law officers of the Crown must be held to be better interpreters of a British statute than any foreign Government can be presumed to be. Her Majesty's Government must, therefore, decline either to make reparation or compensation for the captures made by the Alabama, or to refer the question to any foreign State.

CAUSE FOR GRATITUDE. — The glorious and heaven inspired labor of the Sanitary Commission, during the progress of the present fiendish rebellion, has resulted in the preservation of the lives of thousands of those noble patriots that have offered themselves a sacrifice on the altar of their country. While such should command the gratitude of the nation, it should not be forgotten that Wistar's Pulmonary Syrup is entitled to and receives the universal approbation of the thousands that have been snatched from the jaws of death through its use. As a remedy for all affections of the lungs it has no equal.

DON'T NEGLECT A COLD. — They are the primary cause of nearly all diseases. One table spoonful of the genuine Hall's Pulmonary Balsam taken at bed time will cure any cold, no matter where located.

GEN. GRANT ON HIS OWN ACHIEVEMENTS.—In Washington I had the privilege of an introduction to Gen. Grant. The eminent man was in his official department, much the sort of room in which a London attorney might be imagined giving audience to his clients. The Gen. was not in uniform, and plainly dressed. The portraits of him are faithful representations of his square but spacious forehead, and of the settled and regular, but not strongly marked features below. A military officer was in attendance upon him, who was of an old Indian descent, a person somewhat above the ordinary height, whose complexion and feature bespoke his origin, but whose civilized experiences had given him a little more flesh than would seem to have been common among his ancestors. This stately descendant from the sons of the old wilderness gave me a cordial grasp of the hand on our being introduced. The manner of the General was simple and quiet. I soon saw that he was a man of few words, and had reason to think that his words were well chosen. After a few common places had passed, he began to speak freely on public affairs. The tones of the English press concerning the military action of the North seemed to have impressed him unfavorably. "If your newspapers are to be believed," said the soldier who is second to none of his time, "we never went into the field but to be beaten. I have been in more engagements than any other man in the service, and have not been beaten yet. On the continent of Europe, too, the disposition it appears has been to harp on the same string. Friends who have visited your country and France tell me that go into what circle they might, the talk about America all went one way." In reply, I mentioned some facts which seemed to warrant a somewhat different conclusion. These facts were frankly admitted as tending to show that in England there must after all have been a considerable breadth of sympathy with the North. "Say what you will," said the General, "this war has been the biggest job of its sort that has been done in this world, and it will be a chapter to itself in the history of war—nothing like it has gone before." When about to take my leave I was pleased to hear the General say, "Well, I think I shall come to England some day; but it must not be until I can spare a twelvemonth for that part of the world." I did not fail to express my convictions that if he came among us he would find not a few capable of appreciating what he had done, and of doing so generously. Of Lee the General spoke honorably, describing him as an able man who had made a great mistake. This mistake, I presume, was in committing himself against the Northern cause—the cause, the final success of which the General himself had never doubted.—Dr. E. Vaugh, in the British Quarterly Review.

THE NEGRO QUESTION IN KENTUCKY.—The following notice was lately published by the Mayor of Louisville. It called forth from General Brisbin the reply given below:

The congregation of colored people in this city, claimed to be slaves of the neighboring farmers and others, has become an evil of such magnitude as to require correction. It is, therefore, hereby notified to such owners and claimants that unless such colored persons are removed from the city to the homes of their claimants, by the 26th day of this month, legal proceedings will be instituted under the State law to compel compliance. The City Marshal and his assistants shall at once make out a roll of the age, sex and claimant of all colored persons going at large in this city, and hand a copy to the City Attorney for proper legal proceedings. JOSEPH WINGATE, Mayor

HEADQRS FIRST BRIGADE, DEP'T KENTUCKY,
LEXINGTON (Ky.), October 20, 1865.

To the Mayor of the City of Lexington (Ky.)—Sir: In accordance with instructions this day received from Major General Palmer, commanding Department of Kentucky, I desire to call your attention to a certain proclamation, purporting to be issued by you, "notifying all owners or claimants of slaves that unless they remove them before the 26th inst. legal proceedings will be instituted against them," and to inform you that this shows a total disregard of the rights of those persons who were once slaves, and a determination to reduce them to the condition from which they have just escaped, and that the military authorities will protect all the people of the city to which your proclamation alludes, and that no portion of them can be seized and removed from the city at the mere will of persons who may choose to call themselves owners or claimants, without discussing the questions whether there is in point of law any person in the State who can be truthfully called the owner of any other person, the wives and children of discharged soldiers, and soldiers now in service are under the special protection of the military authorities, and all the people of the State are presumed to be free, and will be treated accordingly until further orders are received to the contrary.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
JAMES S. BRISBIN.

THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.—A St. Louis letter of the 5th says:

Representatives of New York capitalists, composing a company of which the Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson is President, are in the city en route to Jefferson City, with a view of negotiating the purchase of the southwest branch of the Pacific Railroad of this State. This road now terminates at Rolla, 146 miles from the city, and is graded to the Big Piney, about thirty miles southwest of Rolla. As arranged and laid out originally the road runs to the Granby Mines, about 300 miles from this city. The design of the New York company is said to be to finish the road and connect it with the Texas roads running north at the time as far as Marshall, not far from Shreveport. The route would lie through the Indian Territory, and, if constructed, the road would prove immensely valuable to the magnificent domain now held by the Indians in the territory of the Choctaws, Chickasaws, etc. This is a gigantic scheme, and may have an ultimate connection with a Southern Pacific Railroad which for so many years was the favorite dream of the Southerners. There are difficulties to be overcome at the start. The State virtually owns the road by the default of the company to pay interest on the State bonds but the company has issued a mortgage for $10,000,000 on the lands granted by Congress to aid in the building of the road, and how the company can be deprived of the lands now is a knotty question. Gov. Fletcher is said to favor the project, and the parties interested are quite hopeful of success.

A distinguished Pennsylvanian who was present at an interview with President Johnson when it was intimated that the Copperhead leaders of Pennsylvania were coupling the President's name as being in sympathy with their movements and objects, authorizes us to say that Andrew Johnson indignantly repelled the intimation, and declared that he was unable to discriminate whether the insult was greatest to be doubted by Union men or to be claimed by Copperheads as being in sympathy with their designs on the country!

TO THE POINT.—Senator Howe of Wisconsin in a speech at Milwaukee on the 14th of October, said:

One year ago when large rebel armies were fighting on Southern fields for the defeat of our ticket then I [illegible] upon you only the flag of the Union and I appealed to you to stand by the party which stood by it. Then I asked you to sustain the Union party because it would save the country. Now I ask you to stand by the Union party because it has saved the country.

General Grant has written a letter to General Smith granting him permission to return home on parole to be placed on the same footing as other Confederate officers of his rank. General Smith desires to return and renew his allegiance to the Government of the United States, he having left under the misapprehension that Gens. Lee, Johnston and others, had been arrested for trial. The General is at present sojourning at Matanzas, in Cuba.

HENRY S. FOOTE AGAIN.—In the United States Circuit Court the other day, United States District Attorney Daniel S. Dickinson made the usual application to practice in the United States Circuit Court in behalf of Henry S. Foote, ex-Governor of Mississippi, ex-United States Senator, and ex-member of the rebel House of Representatives. The applicant, by direction of the Court, presented himself at the clerk's desk and took the oath to support the Constitution. But there was a test which Mr. Foote evidently did not dream of, an oath required by a late act of Congress to the effect that the applicant has not voluntarily borne arms against the United States, &c. This oath Mr. Foote declined to take, and so declining, left the Court.

THE STANDARD
AMERICAN BILLIARD TABLES!

AND COMBINATION CUSHIONS

MESSRS. PHELAN & COLLENDER

WOULD RESPECTFULLY CALL THE ATTENTION of persons wanting Billiard Tables to the great superiority of the above tables manufactured exclusively at their establishment.

At the Billiard Congress of 1863 composed of all the first class players of America it was unanimously resolved that tables of our manufacture should be used at all matches for the Championship, as the best and only reliable tables.

These Billiard Tables have received the unqualified approval of the best players and most competent judges who have not only readily given them the palm for general excellence and durability.

Five distinct patents for improvements in Billiard Tables have been granted to us by the United States Patent Office and we have lately obtained a Patent from the French Government for our improvement in Billiard Cushions.

We employ in the construction of our tables a variety of machinery specially used for the purpose by means of which we are able to insure a solidity and mechanical accuracy hitherto unknown in Billiard manufacture.

Having a long experience and thorough knowledge of all the appliances of Billiards and constantly on hand a large stock of the best and most thoroughly seasoned materials we are prepared to furnish everything required in the Billiard line with unprecedented dispatch.

The eminent French Billiard Player M. Berger has published the following opinion:

New York, 2d August 1861.

On the eve of leaving the United States I am happy to declare to all amateurs of Billiards that, after a tour of play in all the principal cities I have been enabled to judge in a satisfactory manner of the superiority of the Billiard Tables manufactured by Phelan & Collender. The system of manufacturing is so superior that I am happy to introduce their style of tables into France. They have united to the manufacture of American Billiard Tables that of the French Tables of remarkable excellence and beauty. For these reasons I am happy to make this declaration.

BERGER CLAUDIUS,
Prof. of Billiards, Paris.

Parties ordering from us will find our prices as low as good work can possibly be made for. We sell first class articles at a fair price and will not make an inferior article at any price.

Orders by mail carefully and promptly executed. Illustrated Catalogues and Price Lists sent by mail. The "Billiard Cue," a journal published in the interest of Billiards and containing all news of all novelties, a [illegible] course of Billiard news and everything of interest to amateurs of Billiards sent free on application.

M. E. HUGHES
, 710 Montgomery St., San Francisco Cal., is our only authorized Agent on the Pacific coast to whom all orders should be addressed.

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus, CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION! IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.
